ABOUT THE SCHOOL

The Eastern Mediterranean International School (EMIS) is a unique international boarding and day school with the mission of using education to promote an intercultural community, peace, and ecological responsibility for a better future.

Located in Hakfar Hayarok (The green village), a youth village and educational campus in the center of Israel, EMIS fosters intercultural understanding and promotes personal and social leadership. Through a shared learning and living experience, EMIS educates towards values of respect, diversity, and global citizenship.

Our students, from the region and International, start EMIS either in 10th grade for our Pre-DP Program or in 11th grade for the rigorous two-year International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma Program.
